

Araxi Dulgeroff Obituary

Araxi Dulgeroff, 92, of South Pasadena, Florida, passed away peacefully on October 6, 2026, with her loving son, Nelson, by her side. Araxi was a beautiful, kind, strong, and independent woman with a gentle soul and a heart full of love. She was deeply loved by her family, friends, church community, and everyone who had the privilege of knowing her. To know Araxi was to love her.

She is survived by her beloved son, Nelson Dulgeroff; her loving sister, Louise Martin (David); her cherished niece and nephew, Andrew Martin (Nuki) and Tonya Bowe (Cameron); her dearest friend, Merella, her loving church family at St. Hagop Armenian Church & friends.

She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Theodore Dulgeroff, with whom she shared 42 wonderful years of marriage. Araxi's life was one of courage, love, devotion, and resilience. As a young woman, Araxi and her family escaped Bulgaria and spent several years in Lebanon before making their way to the United States. It was here that her life changed forever when she met her future husband, Theodore. In 1960, just three months after meeting, Araxi and Theodore were married. Their love was strong and adventurous, and together they traveled throughout Europe before welcoming their only child, their beloved son Nelson, in 1963. Araxi and Theodore shared 42 wonderful years together.

When Theodore became ill and passed away 24 years ago, Araxi carried his love and memory with her everyday. She never remarried, choosing instead to devote her life to her son, her family, friends, her church, and her faith in God. Araxi was a woman of quiet strength. She was loving yet independent, strong yet gentle, and caring in ways that left a lasting impression on everyone around her. She gave so much of herself to the people she loved and found joy in the simple blessings of family, friendship, faith, and togetherness. Her love for Nelson was immeasurable and she devoted her life to being there for him. Araxi leaves behind more than memories. She leaves behind a legacy of love, strength, faith, and devotion.

There will be an emptiness in our hearts, but there will also be gratitude—for the years shared, the laughter, the stories, the love, and the countless beautiful memories she gave us.

May she rest in the arms of God and be reunited with her beloved Theodore, whose memory she carried faithfully throughout the years.

Good bye for now dear Araxi. Your beautiful spirit will live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved you. You will never be forgotten.
